The Able Trust

(850)224-4493

Tallahassee, May 1 – The Able Trust announced today that Rachael Moulton has joined the organization as Executive Assistant to the President and CEO. Rachael will perform as direct assistant to the President and CEO of The Able Trust in all administrative and operational duties. Along with the staff, she will protect and enhance the mission of the organization. She will also serve as liaison to The Able Trust Alumni Association. Rachael brings with her years of experience in administration and communications both in the profit and nonprofit arenas.

Rachael has a bachelors' of science in Public Relations from John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Prior to joining the Able Trust, Rachael was a certification specialist and communications coordinator for The Florida Bar. She has served as a church administrator, communications coordinator and public relations specialist in previous positions.

“I am delighted to step into the world of philanthropy with such a highly regarded organization as The Able Trust,” said Rachael. “I look forward to applying my experience to the duties of this position and help the organization advance their mission of providing Floridians with disabilities opportunities for successful employment.”

The Able Trust, also known as the Florida Endowment Foundation for Vocational Rehabilitation, is a 501(c)(3) foundation established by the Florida Legislature in 1990. Its mission is to be a key leader in providing Floridians with disabilities opportunities for successful employment. The Able Trust is celebrating 25 years of making a positive impact on the state of Florida. Since its establishment, The Able Trust has awarded more than $35 million in grants throughout Florida, enabling thousands of Floridians with disabilities to enter the workforce.
